Examination Reference List

The Advisory Board of Athletic Trainers does not provide or promote any commercially available study guides or courses for the state licensure examination and does not assure improved performance by using any such study guides or courses. The blueprint for the state licensure examination is the Board of Certification, Inc.® Role Delineation Study 6th edition (<http://www.bocatc.org>). The Role Delineation Study 6th edition describes the current knowledge, skills and abilities expected of an entry-level athletic trainer to practice athletic training. Questions on the Texas Athletic Trainer Licensure Examination (Written and Practical) are drawn from the sources on the reference list below.
