Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS)

Mobile Application Overview of DSHS-Issued Mobile Phone for Video Enabled Directly Observed Therapy (VDOT)

Camera
This app does not need to be used. It opens automatically when you start a video in the Emocha app.

CDC
Ensures that you will get the most up to date health information from the Centers for Disease Control (CDC).

Google Chrome
Google Chrome is a fast, easy to use, and secure web browser.

Contacts
This app allows you to store contact information of your clinical team.

Downloads
This app will automatically store videos taken.

Emocha
This is the app you will use to upload videos taking your medications.

Google
This app allows you to browse the internet and use Google Maps.

Messaging
This app allows for text messages to and from your clinical team.

Mobile@Work
MobileIron does not need to be used. It allows access work resources.

Phone
Allows for incoming and outgoing calls to your clinical team.

Photos
Does not need to be used routinely. Allows and stores photos.

Play Store
This app will bring you to the CDC and Emocha apps.

Settings
Provides information about the phone, from internet settings to battery power, storage and display settings.