SUBCHAPTER B	ELIGIBILITY AND APPLICATION PROCEDURES FOR A LICENSE TO CARRY A HANDGUN
RULE §6.11	Application Review and Background Investigation

(a) The statutory time periods for the department to conduct application reviews and background investigations shall be measured from the date a complete application is received by the department.

(b) For an application to be considered complete, the department must receive all information required by the Act and this chapter, including additional requests for information, and all nonrefundable fees must be paid.

(c) If an application is not legible or complete, the department will notify the applicant of the deficiency. The applicant will have 90 days from the date of the deficiency notification letter to amend the application. Upon written request, the department may extend the period to amend the application for one additional 90 day period. After the period to amend expires, the application process is terminated.

(d) An individual whose application is terminated under this subsection will be required to submit new application materials and fees to apply for a license in the future.
