To People interested in School Health Programs and School Health issues:

The Texas School Health Advisory Committee (TSHAC) was created by Texas Health and Safety Code, Section 1001.0711. TSHAC advises the Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS) in its support for and delivery of coordinated school health programs and school health services. TSHAC seeks input from stakeholders on these issues and produces recommendations to DSHS on school health best practices and resources for school policy makers.

DSHS is currently accepting applications for membership on TSHAC for the following position (s):

- Representative from an organization or agency involved with the health of school children (3 vacancies)
- Medical professional (practicing physician, practicing physician assistant, or practicing nurse practitioner) that provides health services to school-age children (1 vacancy)
- Person working in a school as a certified health educator (1 vacancy)

The DSHS commissioner will appoint a member to the TSHAC to serve a four-year term ending July 31, 2030.

The TSHAC will include key stakeholders as determined by the DSHS commissioner. To view the full composition of TSHAC, please see the Texas School Health Advisory Committee website.

A member must regularly participate in TSHAC meetings and may also have to participate in subcommittee meetings, projects, and presentations. Meetings will be held in Austin at least twice a year or at the call of the presiding officer. Virtual attendance at TSHAC meetings is allowed. Reimbursement for travel expenses to and from meetings is permitted when funds are available.

If you would like to serve on the TSHAC, please complete and return the linked application no later than 11:59 p.m., March 31, 2026. Please electronically
