

THMP Dates for January

Applications Due January 31st	Must Reapply (Eligibility Period Ended)
January Birthdates: Recertification July Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is September 1-February 28 New eligibility period will be March 1-August 31 If no application is received, medications will be placed on hold January 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial If the application is denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, medications can be ordered until February 28 while THMP awaits a new application or the requested documents.	November Birthdates: Recertification May Birthdates: Self-Attestation Eligibility period ended December 31 The participant will need to fully reapply to THMP with a new application with MCF and mailed for one of the following reasons: • A complete recertification or self-attestation was not received by THMP before December 31 • The recertification application was pended for a verification issue and the requested documents were not received on or before December 31
Applications Overdue (May Still Apply)	Out of cycle applications
December Birthdates: Recertification June Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is August 1-January 31 New eligibility period will be February 1-July 31 Application Was Due December 31 If no application was received, medications were placed on hold December 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial. If the application was denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, eligibility will end January 31 if information is not received. If application received after December 31 but before January 31, the medication hold will be lifted and the application will be processed. Medications will be placed on hold again January 31 if application processing is not completed.	Applications received for these birthdates will be used to update demographic information and filed for storage (not with participant record) • February • March • April • May • August • September • October • November Recertification applications received for June or July birthdates will be processed as self-attestations.

Remember, ADAP funding prohibits us from providing medications to persons outside of their eligibility periods, but continued medication adherence is very important. Refer those clients who lose or lapse THMP eligibility to the local area or to Pharmacy Assistance Programs for short-term medication assistance or to 2-1-1.

THMP Dates for February

Applications Due February 28th	Must Reapply (Eligibility Period Ended)
February Birthdates: Recertification August Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is October 1-March 31 New eligibility period will be April 1-September 30 If no application is received, medications will be placed on hold February 28 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial If the application is denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, medications can be ordered until March 31 while THMP awaits a new application or the requested documents.	December Birthdates: Recertification June Birthdates: Self-Attestation Eligibility period ended January 31 The participant will need to fully reapply to THMP with a new application with MCF and mailed for one of the following reasons: • A complete recertification or self-attestation was not received by THMP before January 31 • The recertification application was pended for a verification issue and the requested documents were not received on or before January 31
Applications Overdue (May Still Apply)	Out of cycle applications
January Birthdates: Recertification July Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period: September 1-February 28 New eligibility period will be March 1-August 31 Application Was Due January 31 If no application was received, medications were placed on hold January 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial. If the application was denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, eligibility will end February 28 if information is not received. If application received after January 31 but before February 28, the medication hold will be lifted and the application will be processed. Medications will be placed on hold again February 28 if application processing is not completed.	Applications received for these birthdates will be used to update demographic information and filed for storage (not with participant record) • March • April • May • June • September • October • November • December Recertification applications received for July or August birthdates will be processed as self-attestations.

Remember, ADAP funding prohibits us from providing medications to persons outside of their eligibility periods, but continued medication adherence is very important. Refer those clients who lose or lapse THMP eligibility to the local area or to Pharmacy Assistance Programs for short-term medication assistance or to 2-1-1.

THMP Dates for March

Applications Due March 31	Must Reapply (Eligibility Period Ended)
March Birthdates: Recertification September Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is November 1-April 30 New eligibility period will be May 1-October 31 If no application is received, medications will be placed on hold March 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial If the application is denied as incomplete or pending for verification documents, medications can be ordered until April 30 while THMP awaits a new application or the requested documents.	January Birthdates: Recertification July Birthdates: Self-Attestation Eligibility period ended February 28 The participant will need to fully reapply to THMP with a new application with MCF and mailed for one of the following reasons: • A complete recertification or self-attestation was not received by THMP before February 28 • The recertification application was pending for a verification issue and the requested documents were not received on or before February 28
Applications Overdue (May Still Apply)	Out of cycle applications
February Birthdates: Recertification August Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is October 1-March 31 New eligibility period will be April 1-September 30 Application Was Due February 28 If no application was received, medications were placed on hold February 28 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial. If the application was denied as incomplete or pending for verification documents, eligibility will end March 31 if information is not received. If application received after February 28 but before March 31, the medication hold will be lifted and the application will be processed. Medications will be placed on hold again March 31 if application processing is not completed.	Applications received for these birthdates will be used to update demographic information and filed for storage (not with participant record) • January • April • May • June • July • October • November • December Recertification applications received for August or September birthdates will be processed as self-attestations.

Remember, ADAP funding prohibits us from providing medications to persons outside of their eligibility periods, but continued medication adherence is very important. Refer those clients who lose or lapse THMP eligibility to the local area or to Pharmacy Assistance Programs for short-term medication assistance or to 2-1-1.

THMP Dates for April

Applications Due April 30	Must Reapply (Eligibility Period Ended)
April Birthdates: Recertification October Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is December 1-May 31 New eligibility period will be June 1-November 30 If no application is received, medications will be placed on hold April 30 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial If the application is denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, medications can be ordered until May 31 while THMP awaits a new application or the requested documents.	February Birthdates: Recertification August Birthdates: Self-Attestation Eligibility period ended March 31 The participant will need to fully reapply to THMP with a new application with MCF and mailed for one of the following reasons: • A complete recertification or self-attestation was not received by THMP before March 31 • The recertification application was pended for a verification issue and the requested documents were not received on or before March 31
Applications Overdue (May Still Apply)	Out of cycle applications
March Birthdates: Recertification September Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is November 1-April 30 New eligibility period will be May 1-October 31 Application Was Due March 31 If no application was received, medications were placed on hold March 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial. If the application was denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, eligibility will end March 31 if information is not received. If application received after March 31 but before April 30, the medication hold will be lifted and the application will be processed. Medications will be placed on hold again April 30 if application processing is not completed.	Applications received for these birthdates will be used to update demographic information and filed for storage (not with participant record) • January • February • May • June • July • August • November • December Recertification applications received for September or October birthdates will be processed as self-attestations.

Remember, ADAP funding prohibits us from providing medications to persons outside of their eligibility periods, but continued medication adherence is very important. Refer those clients who lose or lapse THMP eligibility to the local area or to Pharmacy Assistance Programs for short-term medication assistance or to 2-1-1.

THMP Dates for May

Applications Due May 31	Must Reapply (Eligibility Period Ended)
May Birthdates: Recertification November Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is January 1-June 30 New eligibility period will be July 1-December 31 If no application is received, medications will be placed on hold May 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial If the application is denied as incomplete or pending for verification documents, medications can be ordered until June 30 while THMP awaits a new application or the requested documents.	March Birthdates: Recertification September Birthdates: Self-Attestation Eligibility period ended April 30 The participant will need to fully reapply to THMP with a new application with MCF and mailed for one of the following reasons: • A complete recertification or self-attestation was not received by THMP before April 30 • The recertification application was pending for a verification issue and the requested documents were not received on or before April 30
Applications Overdue (May Still Apply)	Out of cycle applications
April Birthdates: Recertification October Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is December 1-May 31 New eligibility period will be June 1-November 30 Application Was Due April 30 If no application was received, medications were placed on hold April 30 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial. If the application was denied as incomplete or pending for verification documents, eligibility will end April 30 if information is not received. If application received after April 30 but before May 31, the medication hold will be lifted and the application will be processed. Medications will be placed on hold again May 31 if application processing is not completed.	Applications received for these birthdates will be used to update demographic information and filed for storage (not with participant record) • January • February • March • June • July • August • September • December Recertification applications received for October or November birthdates will be processed as self-attestations.

Remember, ADAP funding prohibits us from providing medications to persons outside of their eligibility periods, but continued medication adherence is very important. Refer those clients who lose or lapse THMP eligibility to the local area or to Pharmacy Assistance Programs for short-term medication assistance or to 2-1-1.

THMP Dates for June

Applications Due June 30	Must Reapply (Eligibility Period Ended)
June Birthdates: Recertification December Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is February 1-July 31 New eligibility period will be August 1-January 31 If no application is received, medications will be placed on hold June 30 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial If the application is denied as incomplete or pending for verification documents, medications can be ordered until July 31 while THMP awaits a new application or the requested documents.	April Birthdates: Recertification October Birthdates: Self-Attestation Eligibility period ended May 31 The participant will need to fully reapply to THMP with a new application with MCF and mailed for one of the following reasons: • A complete recertification or self-attestation was not received by THMP before May 31 • The recertification application was pending for a verification issue and the requested documents were not received on or before May 31
Applications Overdue (May Still Apply)	Out of cycle applications
May Birthdates: Recertification November Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is January 1-June 30 New eligibility period will be July 1-December 31 Application Was Due May 31 If no application was received, medications were placed on hold May 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial. If the application was denied as incomplete or pending for verification documents, eligibility will end June 30 if information is not received. If application received after May 31 but before June 30, the medication hold will be lifted and the application will be processed. Medications will be placed on hold again June 30 if application processing is not completed.	Applications received for these birthdates will be used to update demographic information and filed for storage (not with participant record) • January • February • March • April • July • August • September • October Recertification applications received for November or December birthdates will be processed as self-attestations.

Remember, ADAP funding prohibits us from providing medications to persons outside of their eligibility periods, but continued medication adherence is very important. Refer those clients who lose or lapse THMP eligibility to the local area or to Pharmacy Assistance Programs for short-term medication assistance or to 2-1-1.

THMP Dates for July

Applications Due July 31	Must Reapply (Eligibility Period Ended)
July Birthdates: Recertification January Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is March 1-August 31 New eligibility period will be September 1-February 28 If no application is received, medications will be placed on hold July 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial If the application is denied as incomplete or pending for verification documents, medications can be ordered until August 31 while THMP awaits a new application or the requested documents.	May Birthdates: Recertification November Birthdates: Self-Attestation Eligibility period ended June 30 The participant will need to fully reapply to THMP with a new application with MCF and mailed for one of the following reasons: • A complete recertification or self-attestation was not received by THMP before June 30 • The recertification application was pending for a verification issue and the requested documents were not received on or before June 30
Applications Overdue (May Still Apply)	Out of cycle applications
June Birthdates: Recertification December Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is February 1-July 31 New eligibility period will be August 1-January 31 Application Was Due June 30 If no application was received, medications were placed on hold June 30 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial. If the application was denied as incomplete or pending for verification documents, eligibility will end July 31 if information is not received. If application received after June 30 but before July 31, the medication hold will be lifted and the application will be processed. Medications will be placed on hold again July 31 if application processing is not completed.	Applications received for these birthdates will be used to update demographic information and filed for storage (not with participant record) • February • March • April • May • August • September • October • November Recertification applications received for December or January birthdates will be processed as self-attestations.

Remember, ADAP funding prohibits us from providing medications to persons outside of their eligibility periods, but continued medication adherence is very important. Refer those clients who lose or lapse THMP eligibility to the local area or to Pharmacy Assistance Programs for short-term medication assistance or to 2-1-1.

THMP Dates for August

Applications Due August 31	Must Reapply (Eligibility Period Ended)
August Birthdates: Recertification February Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is April 1-September 30 New eligibility period will be October 1-March 31 If no application is received, medications will be placed on hold August 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial If the application is denied as incomplete or pending for verification documents, medications can be ordered until September 30 while THMP awaits a new application or the requested documents.	June Birthdates: Recertification December Birthdates: Self-Attestation Eligibility period ended July 31 The participant will need to fully reapply to THMP with a new application with MCF and mailed for one of the following reasons: • A complete recertification or self-attestation was not received by THMP before July 31 • The recertification application was pending for a verification issue and the requested documents were not received on or before July 31
Applications Overdue (May Still Apply)	Out of cycle applications
July Birthdates: Recertification January Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is March 1-August 31 New eligibility period will be September 1-February 28 Application Was Due July 31 If no application was received, medications were placed on hold July 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial. If the application was denied as incomplete or pending for verification documents, eligibility will end August 31 if information is not received. If application received after July 31 but before August 31, the medication hold will be lifted and the application will be processed. Medications will be placed on hold again August 31 if application processing is not completed.	Applications received for these birthdates will be used to update demographic information and filed for storage (not with participant record) • March • April • May • June • September • October • November • December Recertification applications received for January or February birthdates will be processed as self-attestations.

Remember, ADAP funding prohibits us from providing medications to persons outside of their eligibility periods, but continued medication adherence is very important. Refer those clients who lose or lapse THMP eligibility to the local area or to Pharmacy Assistance Programs for short-term medication assistance or to 2-1-1.

THMP Dates for September

Applications Due September 30	Must Reapply (Eligibility Period Ended)
September Birthdates: Recertification March Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is May 1-October 31 New eligibility period will be November 1-April 30 If no application is received, medications will be placed on hold September 30 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial If the application is denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, medications can be ordered until October 31 while THMP awaits a new application or the requested documents.	July Birthdates: Recertification January Birthdates: Self-Attestation Eligibility period ended August 31 The participant will need to fully reapply to THMP with a new application with MCF and mailed for one of the following reasons: • A complete recertification or self-attestation was not received by THMP before August 31 • The recertification application was pended for a verification issue and the requested documents were not received on or before August 31
Applications Overdue (May Still Apply)	Out of cycle applications
August Birthdates: Recertification February Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is April 1-September 30 New eligibility period will be October 1-March 31 Application Was Due August 31 If no application was received, medications were placed on hold August 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial. If the application was denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, eligibility will end September 30 if information is not received. If application received after August 31 but before September 30, the medication hold will be lifted and the application will be processed. Medications will be placed on hold again September 30 if application processing is not completed.	Applications received for these birthdates will be used to update demographic information and filed for storage (not with participant record) • January • April • May • June • July • October • November • December Recertification applications received for February or March birthdates will be processed as self-attestations.

Remember, ADAP funding prohibits us from providing medications to persons outside of their eligibility periods, but continued medication adherence is very important. Refer those clients who lose or lapse THMP eligibility to the local area or to Pharmacy Assistance Programs for short-term medication assistance or to 2-1-1.

THMP Dates for October

Applications Due October 31	Must Reapply (Eligibility Period Ended)
October Birthdates: Recertification April Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is June 1-November 30 New eligibility period will be December 1-May 31 If no application is received, medications will be placed on hold October 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial If the application is denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, medications can be ordered until November 30 while THMP awaits a new application or the requested documents.	August Birthdates: Recertification February Birthdates: Self-Attestation Eligibility period ended September 30 The participant will need to fully reapply to THMP with a new application with MCF and mailed for one of the following reasons: • A complete recertification or self-attestation was not received by THMP before September 30 • The recertification application was pended for a verification issue and the requested documents were not received on or before September 30
Applications Overdue (May Still Apply)	Out of cycle applications
September Birthdates: Recertification March Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is May 1-October 31 New eligibility period will be November 1-April 30 Application Was Due September 30 If no application was received, medications were placed on hold September 30 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial. If the application was denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, eligibility will end October 31 if information is not received. If application received after September 30 but before October 31, the medication hold will be lifted and the application will be processed. Medications will be placed on hold again October 31 if application processing is not completed.	Applications received for these birthdates will be used to update demographic information and filed for storage (not with participant record) • January • February • May • June • July • August • November • December Recertification applications received for March or April birthdates will be processed as self-attestations.

Remember, ADAP funding prohibits us from providing medications to persons outside of their eligibility periods, but continued medication adherence is very important. Refer those clients who lose or lapse THMP eligibility to the local area or to Pharmacy Assistance Programs for short-term medication assistance or to 2-1-1.

THMP Dates for November

Applications Due November 30	Must Reapply (Eligibility Period Ended)
November Birthdates: Recertification May Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is July 1-December 31 New eligibility period will be January 1-June 30 If no application is received, medications will be placed on hold November 30 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial If the application is denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, medications can be ordered until December 31 while THMP awaits a new application or the requested documents.	September Birthdates: Recertification March Birthdates: Self-Attestation Eligibility period ended October 31 The participant will need to fully reapply to THMP with a new application with MCF and mailed for one of the following reasons: • A complete recertification or self-attestation was not received by THMP before October 31 • The recertification application was pended for a verification issue and the requested documents were not received on or before October 31
Applications Overdue (May Still Apply)	Out of cycle applications
October Birthdates: Recertification April Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is June 1-November 30 New eligibility period will be December 1-May 31 Application Was Due October 31 If no application was received, medications were placed on hold October 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial. If the application was denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, eligibility will end October 31 if information is not received. If application received after October 31 but before November 30, the medication hold will be lifted and the application will be processed. Medications will be placed on hold again November 30 if application processing is not completed.	Applications received for these birthdates will be used to update demographic information and filed for storage (not with participant record) • January • February • March • June • July • August • September • December Recertification applications received for April or May birthdates will be processed as self-attestations.

Remember, ADAP funding prohibits us from providing medications to persons outside of their eligibility periods, but continued medication adherence is very important. Refer those clients who lose or lapse THMP eligibility to the local area or to Pharmacy Assistance Programs for short-term medication assistance or to 2-1-1.

THMP Dates for December

Applications Due December 31st	Must Reapply (Eligibility Period Ended)
December Birthdates: Recertification June Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is August 1-January 31 New eligibility period will be February 1-July 31 If no application is received, medications will be placed on hold December 31 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial If the application is denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, medications can be ordered until January 31 while THMP awaits a new application or the requested documents.	October Birthdates: Recertification April Birthdates: Self-Attestation Eligibility period ended November 30 The participant will need to fully reapply to THMP with a new application with MCF and mailed for one of the following reasons: • A complete recertification or self-attestation was not received by THMP before November 30 • The recertification application was pended for a verification issue and the requested documents were not received on or before November 30
Applications Overdue (May Still Apply)	Out of cycle applications
November Birthdates: Recertification May Birthdates: Self-Attestation Current eligibility period is July 1-December 31 New eligibility period will be January 1-June 30 Application Was Due November 30 If no application was received, medications were placed on hold November 30 If the application is denied as ineligible, eligibility will end on the date of the denial. If the application was denied as incomplete or pended for verification documents, eligibility will end December 31 if information is not received. If application received after November 30 but before December 31, the medication hold will be lifted and the application will be processed. Medications will be placed on hold again December 31 if application processing is not completed.	Applications received for these birthdates will be used to update demographic information and filed for storage (not with participant record) • January • February • March • April • July • August • September • October Recertification applications received for May or June birthdates will be processed as self-attestations.

Remember, ADAP funding prohibits us from providing medications to persons outside of their eligibility periods, but continued medication adherence is very important. Refer those clients who lose or lapse THMP eligibility to the local area or to Pharmacy Assistance Programs for short-term medication assistance or to 2-1-1.