Knowing that every child's life is sacred, it is the promise of Cook Children's to improve the health of every child in our region through the prevention and treatment of illness, disease, and injury. Cook Children's has been assisting North Texas children and their families for nearly 100 years. Today, Cook Children's is more than a nationally known medical center. It is one of the country's leading integrated pediatric health care systems. Based on the initial survey results, Cook Children's Board prioritized seven health issues to address: asthma, childhood obesity, dental health, mental health, safety (unintentional injuries), access to health care and child maltreatment.
