Marriage Verification - A verification letter will include the registrant names, date of marriage, and place of marriage as it appears on the application for marriage license index filed with Vital Statistics. Verification letters of marriage are available for marriages that occurred from 1966 to present. Verification letters are not considered legal substitutes for marriage licenses. Vital Statistics strongly recommends that applicants ensure a verification will satisfy its intended use.

Divorce Verification - A verification letter will include the registrant names, date of divorce, and place of divorce as it appears on the report of divorce or annulment of marriage index filed with Vital Statistics. Verification letters of divorce are available for divorces that occurred from 1968 to present. Verification letters are not considered legal substitutes for divorce decrees. Vital Statistics strongly recommends that applicants ensure a verification will satisfy its intended use.

A verification is a letter verifying whether or not a marriage or divorce was recorded with the State of Texas. Please note that these verification letters are not certified and are not intended to be a certification of marriage or divorce. To order a certified copy of the marriage license, you must contact the County Clerk's Office in the county in which the marriage license was obtained. To order a copy of a divorce decree, you must contact the District Clerk's Office in the District in which the divorce was filed.

Marriage Application - A photocopy of a marriage application may be issued as recorded with the State of Texas based on the application for marriage sent to our office by the county or district clerk. Marriage applications will have confidential information redacted.

Heirloom Wedding Anniversary Certificate - This certificate may be customized to recognize a couple's wedding anniversary. This parchment-like certificate is suitable for framing for commemorative purposes only. It bears the signatures of the Governor of Texas and Texas State Registrar and is 11 inches by 14 inches in size. This is not a legal certificate of marriage. It does not establish and may not be used to establish a marriage relationship.

The applicant must include a photocopy of his or her valid photo ID issued by a governmental entity. See Section 181.28 of the Texas Administrative Code for a complete list of acceptable forms of identification. You also can see VSS's page on acceptable identification in English (<https://www.dshs.texas.gov/vital-statistics/acceptable-identification-id>) and Spanish (<https://www.dshs.texas.gov/es/vital-statistics/acceptable-identification-id>).

If a record is not on file, our office will issue a "not found" letter.
